

I have repeatedly file complaints against a telemarketer who keeps calling more than 30 times a month under the federal donot call list of which I've been registered since 2003. No action has been taken under the federal registry clearly showing that the system does not work at the federal level. The NJ Do Not Call is all that is left to protect the consumers.